

City of Lodi- 4th Annual EEI Workshop
FREE Teacher Environmental Education Training
 California Education and the Environment Initiative (EEI)

“Teaching From a Watershed Perspective”

Thursday, August 17, 2017, 3:30 - 6:00 PM

When: Thursday, August 17, 2017, 3:30 - 6:00 PM
Where: Cottage Room, Hutchins Street Square, 125 Hutchins Street, Lodi

YOU ARE INVITED to attend the 4th Annual City of Lodi’s Environmental Education Workshop, on August 17, 2017. By attending, you will receive EEI training and a free unit of your choice.

RSVP required by August 14, 2017. kgrant@lodi.gov or call 209-333-6800, Ext. 2317.

STIPENDS! For the fourth year, the City of Lodi will offer a $200 stipend to each Lodi campus teacher who successfully completes any EEI unit in the classroom that focuses on water conservation or storm water related issues, and who presents their classroom work at the end of year EEI wrap-up workshop (submittal of a PowerPoint presentation is required).

California Education in the Environment- EEI Training Workshop Thursday- August 17, 2017
SCHEDULE	City of Lodi- Watershed Education Programs
		californiaeei.org
3:15	Check in
3:30	Welcome	Kathy Grant- City of Lodi- Announcements
3:35-4:20	EEI Presenter	Chris Liske - CalRecycle- Environmental Education Specialist- Office of Education and the Environment
4:30-5:00	Waste Management	Joseph Cadelgo- WM Public Sector Services Manager- "Understanding Garbage Waste Streams and Mandates"
5:00	DINNER	Working Dinner
5:15-5:45	City of Lodi EUD	Adam Brucker- City of Lodi Public Benefits Program Manager- "Energy Efficiency"
5:45	Cal-Waste Systems	Leesa Klotz- Education Coordinator- "New Organics Program in the Lodi Schools"
5:45-6:00	Q & A	Questions and Answers session
6:00	Dismissal
Future Important dates:
September 16, 2017- California Coastal Cleanup- Lodi Lake- Mokelumne River
November 3-5, 2017- Lodi 21th Sandhill Crane Festival- Hutchins Street Square. Program available at: http://cranefestival.com/index.php .		